Part III – The Public Service Commission

9. Establishment of Commission

- (1) There is hereby established a commission which shall be known as the Public Service Commission, whose membership shall be composed of a Chairman and not more than six other members who shall be appointed by the President.
- (2) In appointing members of the Commission, the President shall ensure that it consists of both men and women appointed only on grounds of merit.
- (3) The Commission shall cater for public servants in the following services—
 - (a) the civil service;
 - (b) the local government service;
 - (c) the health service;
 - (d) the teachers service;
 - (e) the executive agencies and the public institutions service; and
 - (f) the operational service.
- (4) A member of the Commission shall serve for a period of three years and may be re-appointed for another term of three years.
- (5) A person appointed to be member of the Commission shall be a person respected in the community in which he belongs, who is serving or has served in any profession, with experience at a senior management level in a public sector organisation and is of a proved or provable personal probity and integrity of the highest standard.

- (6) A person shall not be qualified for appointment as member of the Commission if he is—
- (a) holding a political office;
 - (b) a member of any employing authority;
 - (c) a Regional Commissioner or a District Commissioner.
- (7) For avoidance of any doubt, a person who was appointed a member of the Commission while still in the Service shall upon ceasing to be a member, be reinstated to the Service and his service be regarded as continuous save where—
- (a) his cessation was caused by circumstances provided under paragraphs (b) and (c) of subsection (8) of section 9;
 - (b) he has been removed from office by the President under subsection (10) of section 9.
- [Cap. 4 s. 8]*
- (8) Subject to the provisions of this section, the office of a member shall become vacant—
- (a) at the expiration of three years from the date of his appointment; or
 - (b) if he has been removed from office by the President under subsection (10) of section 9;
 - (c) if circumstances arise causing the member to be disqualified from holding, or being appointed to hold the office of a member or by being removed by the President.
- (9) Any member may at any time resign from office by giving notice in writing to the Chief Secretary, and the member shall cease to hold office from the date of receipt of the notice by the Chief Secretary.
- (10) A member may only be removed from office by the President for inability to discharge functions of a member, whether arising from infirmity of body or mind or any other cause.
- (11) If the office of Chairman is vacant or if the person holding it is for any reason unable to discharge the functions of the office, then until a person is appointed and assumes the functions of the office or until the person holding the office resumes discharge of those functions, as the case may be, those functions may be performed by an acting Chairman who shall be appointed by the Chief Secretary from amongst the members.
- (12) The quorum at any meeting of the Commission shall be five members, including the Chairman.
- (13) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Commission may regulate its own procedure.
- (14) Subject to its rules of procedure, the Commission may act notwithstanding any vacancy in its membership or the absence of any member, but any decision of the Commission shall be by a majority of the members in office and attending.

[Act No. 18 of 2007 s. 6]

10. Functions of Commission

- (1) The functions of the Commission shall be—
- (a) to advise the President through the Public Service Department on the exercise of such of the functions conferred on the President by Article 36 of the Constitution, and sections 4(1) and 5(1) of this Act and in respect of the filling of such vacancies in the public service as the President may require;
 - (b) to assist the President in relation to such matters relating to the Service as the President may require;

- (c) to issue guidelines and monitor compliance in the Service;
 - (d) to receive and act on appeals from the decisions of other delegates and disciplinary authorities;
 - (e) to exercise any other functions which may be conferred upon it under Part VI of this Act;
 - (f) to facilitate, monitor and evaluate performance by officials in the Service to secure results oriented management;
 - (g) to call upon all executives in the Service to account for their performance should the Commission be seized with evidence or complaints indicating mismanagement or non-performance of mission;
 - (h) to ensure that service schemes are formulated and implemented effectively;
 - (i) to take measures in relation to any executive who fails to take action concerning public servants under him in accordance with the requirements of the law for the Service;
 - (j) to exercise such other function as may be conferred upon the Commission by or under any other written laws.
- (2) The Commission may require any employing authority to provide information which the Commission may need for carrying out its functions.
 - (3) Where any employing authority fails to provide information as required by the Commission, the Commission shall report the failure to the Chief Secretary who shall take appropriate action.
 - (4) In performing its functions, the Commission shall observe regulations made under this Act or any other written law relating to the Service.

[Act No. 18 of 2007 s. 7]

11. Oath of members

- (1) The Chairman and members of the Commission shall, each on first appointment, take and subscribe to an oath or make affirmation, in the form set out in the Schedule to this Act, which shall be administered by the President.
- (2) The Secretary of the Commission shall on first appointment take and subscribe to an oath or make an affirmation before the President.
- (3) The Chairman may require any officer of the Commission on first appointment, to take an oath or make an affirmation in the form set out in the Schedule to this Act, which shall be administered by the Chairman.

12. Remuneration of members

The members shall be paid such allowances and other benefits out of funds appropriated by Parliament in that behalf as may be determined by the Chief Secretary.

[Act No. 18 of 2007 s. 8]

13. Protection of members

- (1) No act or thing done or omitted to be done, by any member of the Commission, shall, if done or omitted bona fide in the execution or purported execution of his duties as a member, subject any such member to any action, liability or demand of any kind, subject to subsection (2).
- (2) Where in any proceeding a question arises respecting the bona fide of any act done in the purported execution or pursuance of the functions of the Commission, the burden of proving that the act in question was done bona fide shall lie on the person alleging that it was so done.

14. Secretary and staff of Commission

- (1) The President shall appoint a public servant to be the Secretary of the Commission.
- (2) The Secretary shall be the chief executive and accounting officer of the Commission and shall, subject to subsection (3), attend meetings of the Commission but shall not vote at such meetings.
- (3) The Secretary shall not attend the Commission's meetings deliberating on disciplinary referrals of employees of the Commission.
- (4) The Commission may appoint such number of public servants to be deputies or assistants to the Secretary.
- (5) There shall be recruited and employed in such offices of the Commission, such number of persons as the Commission may, with the prior approval of the Permanent Secretary (Establishment), establishes.
- (6) The offices of the Commission shall be public service offices and their holders shall be public servants.

[Act No. 2 of 2013 s. 11]

15. Departments of Commission

- (1) There shall be the following Departments of the Commission, namely—
 - (a) the Civil Service Department;
 - (b) the Local Government Service Department; and
 - (c) the Health Service Department.
- (2) The Commission may, with the prior approval of the President, establish such other departments, divisions, subdivisions, committees or offices within its organizational structure as may be necessary for the better and more efficient carrying out of the objectives and purposes of this Act, and in so doing the Commission may establish such offices in Regions, as well as in Zanzibar in relation to Union Government servants.

[Acts Nos. 18 of 2007 s. 9; 25 of 2015 s. 24(b)]

16. Annual report

- (1) The Commission shall, in each financial year, prepare and submit to the President an annual report dealing generally with its activities and operations during the previous year, as well as touching on its financial affairs.
- (2) The Minister shall, as soon as practicable after the report is submitted to the President, lay the report before the National Assembly.

17. Communications of Commission privileged

Every report, statement or other communication, written or oral which the Commission may in the exercise of its functions under this Act make to the President or to any public servant or which may have taken place between the Commission, or any member or officer of the Commission or any public servant and the Chairman or between any members or officers of the Commission in connection with the exercise of the functions of the Commission shall be privileged in that, unless the President consents in writing in that behalf, its production or disclosure in any legal proceedings may not be compelled.

18. Prohibition of unauthorised disclosure of information

- (1) No member, officer of the Commission or any other person shall, without the written permission of the President, publish or disclose to any unauthorised person or otherwise than in the course of duty, the contents of any document, communication or information of any kind which has come to his knowledge in the course of the performance of duties under this Act.
- (2) Any person who knows of any information which to his knowledge has been disclosed in contravention of this section and who publishes or communicates it to any other person for purposes other than any prosecution under this Act or the exercise of official functions, commits offence.

[Cap. 4 s. 8]

- (3) The provisions of the National Security Act shall apply in relation to the offence committed under this section.

[Cap. 47]

19. Offence of attempt to influence Commission

- (1) Without prejudice to the provisions of any other written law, every person who, otherwise than in the course of duty, directly or indirectly, personally or by any other person in any manner influences or attempts to influence any decision of the Commission commits an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to both such fine and imprisonment.

- (3) A prosecution in respect of any offence under this section shall not be instituted except with the consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions.

[Cap. 4 s. 8]

20. Rules for exercise of functions of Commission

- (1) The Commission may, subject to the consent of the Minister, make rules to be published in the Gazette, providing for—
 - (a) the discharge by the Commission, whether of any person or body of persons, of any additional functions and duties;
 - (b) the time, place and manner, when, in which and how the Commission shall exercise its functions and duties;
 - (c) forms and fees in connection with applications to the Commission's reports or communication from the Commission or any other matter required by or under this Act; and
 - (d) any matter or thing which is required or may be prescribed for the purposes of facilitating the effective performance by the Commission of its functions.
- (2) For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby declared that the Commission may, by rules under this section, provide for the manner in which it shall proceed in any case in which the advice tendered to the President or any department of Government is not the unanimous advice of the Commission, or, as the case may be, of the majority of the members of whom the matter advised upon has been considered.

[Act No. 13 of 2016 s. 25]

Part IV – Provisions relating to the functions of the President

21. Delegation of functions

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the President may, by regulations—
 - (a) delegate the exercise of any of the functions conferred upon the President by Article 36 of the Constitution, other than the power of removal referred to in section 24 of this Act, to the Commission; and
 - (b) delegate to a public servant the exercise of any such functions in relation to a public servant or a public service office.
- (2) The President may, by regulations, authorise the Commission or any public servant to whom the President has delegated the exercise of the functions under this section to depute to the public servants to whom the President is authorized by this section to delegate the exercise of such functions to exercise on behalf of the Commission or the public servant such of the functions, the exercise of which has been delegated to the Commission or public servant as may be specified in the regulations.
- (3) In any regulations made for the purpose of this section, the President shall specify the offices to which each delegation or authorization applies.
- (4) A delegation or authorization made under this section shall not preclude the President from himself exercising any function which is the subject of any delegation or authorization.

22. Advice not binding President

For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby declared that the conferment on the Commission of the duty of giving advice to the President in respect of the exercise of any of the functions vested in the President, shall not preclude the President from seeking advice in respect of the exercise of any functions from any other person.

23. Powers of dismissal

- (1) The power to dismiss public servants shall be exercised in accordance with the provisions of this section.
- (2) The power to dismiss a public servant shall not be exercised unless—
 - (a) a disciplinary charge is preferred against the public servant;
 - (b) the public servant is afforded an adequate opportunity to answer the charge; and
 - (c) an inquiry is held into the charge in accordance with Regulations made under section 35.
- (3) Where on the conclusion of the inquiry or consequently upon conviction on a criminal charge, the public servant is punished by dismissal, the dismissal shall take effect from the date on which that public servant was found guilty.

24. Powers of removal

- (1) The President may remove any public servant from the service of the Republic if the President considers it in the public interest so to do. Except in the case of removal of a judge or other judicial officers, the procedure for the exercise of these powers shall be provided for in the regulations.

- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) of this section shall be construed as restricting—
- (a) the compulsory retirement of any person under the provisions of the Public Service Social Security Fund Act;
[Cap. 371]
 - (b) the termination, otherwise than by dismissal, of the service of any public servant other than the substantive holder of a pensionable office, in accordance with the terms of employment, or the dismissal of any person from any office on the personal or domestic staff of the President or any person holding an office the emoluments of which are payable at an hourly or daily rate.
- (3) A justice of appeal or a judge of the High Court may only be removed from office in exercise of power and in pursuit of the procedure set out in the Constitution; save that, where the President removes a justice of appeal or a judge from office, the judge shall be deemed to have retired from the public service from the date of such removal from office.

25. Appeals

- (1) Where—
