Cap. 212

"the Treasury" means the Minister, and includes such officer or officers as may be deputed by the Minister to exercise powers and to perform duties under this Act.

Part II – Control and management of public finance (ss. 5-17)

(a) – Duties and Powers of Minister and the Treasury (ss. 5-10)

5. Control, management and supervision of public finances

- (1) It shall be the duty of the Minister—
 - (a) to develop and implement a macroeconomic and fiscal policy framework for the United Republic and shall, for that purpose—
 - (i) supervise and monitor the finances of the United Republic;
 - (ii) coordinate international and inter-governmental financial and fiscal relations;
 - (b) to advise the Government on the total of resources to be allocated to the public sector and the appropriate level of resources to be allocated to individual programmes within that sector.
- (2) For the purposes of the full discharge of the duties set out in subsection (1), the Minister shall ensure—
 - (a) that full and transparent accounts are from time to time and not less than annually made to the National Assembly indicating the current and projected state of the economy and finances of the United Republic and the fiscal policy of the Government;
 - (b) that systems are established throughout Government for planning, allocating, and budgeting for the use of resources and approve all requests for the issue of public moneys prior to their inclusion in any estimates of expenditure for submission to the National Assembly in accordance with the provisions of this Act; and
 - (c) that the control of the National Assembly over such resources and public moneys is maintained and transparent systems are established and maintained which—
 - (i) provide a full account to the National Assembly for the use of resources and public moneys;
 - (ii) ensure the exercise of regularity and propriety in the handling and expenditure of resources and public money.
- (3) For the purposes of the full exercise of supervision over the finances of the United Republic, the Minister shall, subject to this Act and to any other written law, have the management of the Consolidated Fund and the supervision, control and direction of all matters relating to the financial affairs of the United Republic.

6. Role of Permanent Secretary and the Paymaster-General

- (1) The Permanent Secretary shall be responsible to the Minister for ensuring the effective application of this Act and any subsidiary legislation made or issued under it.
- (2) For the purposes of discharging the responsibility referred to in subsection (1), the Permanent Secretary may be consulted by Accounting Officers on any matter concerning the application of the provisions of this Act, and he shall promptly appraise the Minister concerning any defect in this Act or any subsidiary legislation which might result in a diminution of control over the assets and finances of the Government, and he may, subject to this Act, give any directions and instructions which he may consider necessary for the safety, advantage, economy and efficient use of public resources.

- (3) The Permanent Secretary shall ensure that—
 - (a) there is established and operated an effective system for the collection of information to ensure that timely and effective preparation of the annual estimates of expenditure for consideration and approval by the Minister and submission to the National Assembly; and
 - (b) such estimates are prepared in conjunction with any general or specific direction of the Minister and reflect, as can best be ascertained at the time, good value for money and the effective use of Government's resources.
- (4) The Permanent Secretary may, by writing under his hand, from time to time require any accounting officer or any entity whose accounts are required by law to be audited by the Controller and Auditor-General or any entity that manages an asset or liability of the Government to supply such information as he considers necessary for the purposes of section 5, and may in such writing specify the date by which and the manner in which the information required is to be provided, and the date specified being reasonable regard being had to the information required.
- (5) The Permanent Secretary and any officer deputed by him, shall be entitled to inspect all offices and to be given access to them at all reasonable times of the day, and be given all available information he may require with regard to the moneys and records in respect of them, so far as may, in any way, be necessary for the purpose of compliance with the provisions of this Act.
- (6) Nothing in this Act or any subsidiary legislation made or issued under it shall be construed as requiring any person to do anything in respect of moneys held on trust which contravenes or is inconsistent with the terms of that trust.
- (7) The Permanent Secretary shall be also the Paymaster-General who shall, in that capacity and subject to the directions of the Treasury, control the issue of public moneys to ministries and departments of the Government, and perform such other functions as the Minister may by regulations under this Act, prescribe.

7. The Accountant-General

- (1) There shall be an Accountant-General under the Permanent Secretary, who shall be appointed by the President from amongst senior professional accountants and auditors on such terms and conditions as shall be specified in the appointment.
- (2) The Accountant-General shall be responsible to the Permanent Secretary for the compilation and management of the accounts and the custody and safety of the public money and public property of the Government, and for that purpose the Accountant-General may, in the manner prescribed by the Minister, and with the prior consent of the Permanent Secretary, give such instructions of a general or specific character to accounting officers as may be necessary for the effectual implementation of the purposes and provisions of this Act.
- (3) Without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of subsection (2), the Accountant-General shall—
 - (a) specify for every Ministry, division, department, fund, agency or other reporting unit the basis of the accounting to be adopted and the classification system to be used there and ensure that a proper system of account is established in each of them, and that all money received and paid by the Government is brought promptly and properly to account;
 - (b) refuse payment on any voucher which is wrong or deficient in content, or that contravenes any subsidiary legislation or instructions properly made or given in pursuance of the provisions of the Constitution⁴, this Act or of any other written law for the management of public money, or that is in any way unacceptable in support of a charge on public funds;

- (c) report in writing any apparent defect in departmental control of revenue, expenditure, cash, stores and other property of the Government and any breach or non-observance of financial regulations, directions or instructions which may come or be brought to his attention;
- (d) ensure, in so far as is practicable, that adequate provisions exist for the safe custody of public money, securities and accountable documents; and
- (e) take precautions, by the maintenance of efficient checks including surprise inspections, against the occurrence of fraud, embezzlement or carelessness.

8. Accounting officers

- (1) There shall be appointed by name and office and in writing by the Paymaster-General an accounting officer in respect of each expenditure vote, who shall control and be accountable for the expenditure of money applied to that vote by an Appropriation Act and for all revenues and other public moneys received, held or disposed of, by or on account of the department or service for which the vote provides.
- (2) An accounting officer may, and shall if so required by any subsidiary legislation under this Act, define in writing the extent to which the powers and duties conferred and imposed on him may be exercised or performed on his behalf by any public officer under his control and give such directions as may be necessary to ensure the proper exercise or performance of those powers and duties, although the delegation of powers and duties shall not abate or abridge the personal accountability of the accounting officer.
- (3) Every accounting officer shall comply with any subsidiary legislation made or issued under this Act and all instructions that may from time to time be given by the Accountant-General in respect of the custody and handling of, and the accounting for public money, public stores, investments, securities or negotiable instruments, whether the property of the Government on deposit with or entrusted to the Government or to any public officer in his official capacity or any other person.

9. Regulations and directions

- (1) The Minister may make such regulations or give such directions as may appear to him to be necessary or expedient for the proper carrying out of the objects, purposes and provisions of this Act, and the assuring of the safety, economy and advantage of the public revenue and public property.
- (2) The Minister shall take all proper steps to ensure that any directions given under this section are brought to the notice of all persons directly affected by them, and such regulations or directions may be published in any manner which is proper and efficient and in addition to publication in the Gazette.

10. Penalties and surcharge

- (1) The Minister may by regulations prescribe penalties, notwithstanding that such penalties exceed the limits prescribed by section 32 of the Interpretation of Laws Act⁵, for any failure to comply with or the contravention of any provision of this Act or any subsidiary legislation made or issued under the Act.
- (2) If a person contravenes or fails to comply with any provision of this Act or any subsidiary legislation made or issued under it and the Act or legislation declares that such contravention or failure to comply is an offence, that person shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding that prescribed by the Minister under subsection (1).

Cap. 1

- (3) Where there occurs a loss of or deficiency in public money or other money that has been advanced to or was under the control of a public officer or where a loss or destruction of or damage to public property or other property occurs while the property was in the care of a public officer and the Minister is satisfied after due enquiry that the negligence or misconduct of the officer caused or contributed to such loss or deficiency, then—
- (a) the amount of such loss or deficiency; or
 - (b) the value of the property lost or destroyed; or
 - (c) the cost of replacing or repairing the damage to that property, as the case may be, shall be a debt due to the Government and may be recovered from the officer in accordance with the Public Officers (Recovery of Debts) Act⁶.
- (4) Where the negligence or misconduct of a public officer was not the sole cause of any loss, deficiency damage or destruction resulting in an action under subsection (3), the amount recoverable from the officer may be restricted to so much only of the cost of, or the cost of replacing or repairing, the loss, deficiency, damage or destruction as the Minister considers, after due enquiry, to be just and equitable having regard to the contribution made by the officer to that loss, deficiency damage or destruction.
- (5) In this section a reference to a public officer includes a person who has been such a public officer.

(b) – The Consolidated Fund and other public funds (ss. 11-17)

11. The Consolidated Fund

Subject to the provisions of Article 135 of the Constitution⁷, all revenues or other moneys raised or received for the purposes of the Government (not being revenues or other moneys that are payable by or under any law into some other fund established for any specific purpose or that may, by or under any law, be retained by the authority that received them for the purpose of defraying the expenses of that authority) shall be paid into and form a Consolidated Fund.

12. Special funds

- (1) The Minister may by order published in the Gazette, establish special funds which shall not form part of the Consolidated Fund; and the receipts, earnings and accruals of such funds at the end of the financial year shall not be repaid to the Consolidated Fund but shall be retained by the funds for the purposes for which they were established.
- (2) Any order made under subsection (1) shall—
- (a) state the purposes for which the special fund is being established; and
 - (b) identify the Accounting Officer responsible for its operations,
- and that order shall be laid before the National Assembly and shall be subject to annulment by the National Assembly and shall cease to have effect when so annulled but without prejudice to the making of a further order.
- (3) No expenditure will be incurred by a special fund except under the authority of a warrant under the hand of the Permanent Secretary addressed to the responsible accounting officer and no such warrant shall be issued in respect of any financial year unless estimates of the income and

⁷

expenditure of the special fund for that financial year, approved by the Minister, have been laid before the National Assembly.

- (4) The funds set out in the Schedule to this Act shall be deemed to have been established under this section and for the purposes specified in that Schedule.
- (5) Subject to subsection (3), the Minister may make Regulations and issue directions for the management and control of any Fund established under this section.
- (6) The Minister shall have the power at any time to wind up any fund established under this section and any funds standing to the credit of such fund at the time of winding up shall be paid into the Consolidated Fund.

13. Investment of moneys in the Consolidated Fund

- (1) Any sums standing to the credit of the Consolidated Fund may, subject to compliance with authorized procedures, be—
 - (a) kept in cash or in such bank accounts as the Accountant-General may from time to time determine;
 - (b) invested with a bank at call or subject to notice not exceeding twelve months or in an investment authorised by law for the investment of trustee funds and approved by the Minister.
- (2) For the avoidance of doubt, the investment of such funds shall not constitute a withdrawal from the Consolidated Fund in terms of section 16 of this Act.

14. Moneys raised or received to exclude deposits or trust funds

For the avoidance of doubt any reference to moneys raised or received by the Government does not include moneys received on deposit or moneys held on trust by or under the control of any court, officer of a court, the Public Trustees, the Attorney-General or the Official Receiver or any sums of money held on trust by any other officer for purposes other than the purposes of the Government.

15. Bank accounts

No public or official account shall be opened in any bank without the authority in writing of the Accountant-General.

16. Issues from the Consolidated Fund

- (1) Subject to Article 139 of the Constitution⁸, no money shall be withdrawn from the Consolidated Fund except upon the authority of a warrant under the hand of the Paymaster-General addressed to the Accountant-General.
- (2) No warrant shall be issued by the Paymaster-General for the purpose of meeting any expenditure unless a grant of credit sufficient to cover the sum involved has been issued by the Controller and Auditor-General and—
 - (a) the expenditure has been authorised for the financial year during which the withdrawal is to take place—
 - (i) by an Appropriation Act; or
 - (ii) by a Supplementary Appropriation Act; or
 - (iii) by Warrant issued under section 21(1) of this Act; or

- (b) it is expenditure (referred to in this part as statutory expenditure) that is charged on the Consolidated Fund by the provisions of the Constitution⁹ or any other law; or
 - (c) for the purpose of repaying any moneys that are received in error by the Consolidated Fund; or
 - (d) for the purpose of paying such sums as may be required for any advance, refund, rebate or drawback where the payment of such advance, refund, rebate or drawback is provided for in this or any other Act.
- (3) The Minister may suspend, withdraw or limit any Warrant or other authority issued by the Permanent Secretary, provided that he is satisfied that such action is required by reason of financial exigencies or the public interest.

17. Accountant-General's warrant

- (1) The Accountant-General shall, subject to this Act, by warrant under his hand authorise accounting officers to incur expenditure up to the limits and for the purposes and subject to the conditions contained therein.
- (2) No warrant shall be issued by the Accountant-General unless the sum and purpose for which it is issued have been included in a warrant issued by the Paymaster-General under section 16\(2\) and every warrant issued by the Accountant-General shall be subject to such limits and conditions as the Minister may determine.
- (3) The Accountant-General may not make any payment or accept any charge in his accounts, and an accounting officer may not incur any commitment or expenditure, unless and until authorised by warrant so to do.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection \(3\), "commitment" means a contract or other arrangement providing for a payment.

Part III – Estimates of revenue and expenditure (ss. 18-24)

18. Estimates of revenue and expenditure

- (1) Subject to article 137 of the Constitution¹⁰, the Minister shall cause to be prepared and laid before the National Assembly as soon as practicable before the commencement of each financial year—
 - (a) estimates of the revenues, expenditure and financing requirements for the Government of Tanzania for that year;
 - (b) for each vote of expenditure a statement of the classes of outputs expected to be provided from that vote during the year and the performance criteria to be met in providing those outputs.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection \(1\), if the National Assembly is dissolved less than three months before the commencement of any financial year, the estimates for that year may be laid before the House as soon as practicable after the commencement of that year.
- (3) The votes of expenditure contained in the estimates (other than statutory expenditure) shall be included in a Bill to be known as an Appropriation Bill which shall be introduced into the National

¹⁰

Assembly to provide for the issue from the Consolidated Fund of the sums necessary to meet that expenditure and the appropriation of those sums to the purposes specified therein.

- (4) If in respect of any financial year it is found that the amount appropriated by an Appropriation Act is insufficient or that a need has arisen for expenditure for a purpose to which no amount has been appropriated by that Act, a supplementary estimate, showing the amount required, shall be laid before the National Assembly and the votes of expenditure shall be included in a Supplementary Appropriation Bill to be introduced in the House to provide for the appropriation of those sums.

19. Excess expenditure

- (1) If at the close of account for any financial year it is found that moneys have been expended—
 - (a) on any expenditure vote in excess of the amount appropriated for it by an Appropriation Act;
 - (b) for a purpose for which no moneys have been voted and appropriated; or
 - (c) on any subhead of an expenditure vote in excess of the sum assigned thereto in the estimates of expenditure for the financial year and to which no further sum has been applied under any provision of this Act or any subsidiary legislation issued under it, the amount of the excess expended or not appropriated as the case may be shall be included in a statement of expenditure in excess which shall be laid before the National Assembly.

- (2) Where the National Assembly shall, by means of a motion allows any excess or any amount expended but not appropriated to stand charged to public funds, the sum required to meet such excess or such amount as shall be allowed, shall be included in a Supplementary Appropriation Bill for appropriation.

20. Grants of Credit

The Controller and Auditor-General shall, from time to time, by Warrant under his hand issue Grants of Credit on the Consolidated Fund to the Minister—

- (a) for the amounts becoming payable during the ensuring three months for statutory expenditure; and
- (b) for the amounts becoming payable for the service of a financial year under the authority of an Appropriation Act or under the provisions of sections 16\(2\)\(c\) and \(d\), 21\(1\) and 22 of this Act.

21. Provision of Appropriation Act not in force

- (1) Subject to Article 139 of the Constitution¹¹, and to subsection \(2\) of this section, if the Appropriation Act has not come into force at the commencement of any financial year, the President may, by Warrant under his hand addressed to the Minister, authorise a withdrawal from the Consolidated Fund for the purposes of meeting the expenditure necessary to carry on the services of the Government until the expiration of four months from the beginning of that financial year or the coming into operation of that Act, whichever is earlier.
- (2) Any sum so authorised shall not exceed the sum specified for such service in the estimates presented for the current year or one-third of the sums provided in the Appropriation and Supplementary Appropriation Acts of the previous year, whichever is the lesser, and shall be set off against the amounts respectively provided in the Appropriation Act upon the same coming into operation.

22. Minister may authorise advances

The Minister may, by Warrant under his hand addressed to the Accountant-General authorise the issue of advances from the Consolidated Fund—

- (a) to special funds if those advances are repayable not later than the end of the financial year in which they were issued;
- (b) to public officers, for the purpose of funding approved expenditure, if those advances are repayable not later than the end of the financial year in which they were issued.

23. Duration of appropriations and warrants

Every appropriation by the National Assembly of public moneys for the service of a financial year and every Warrant or other authority issued under this Act in respect of such financial year, shall lapse and cease to have any effect at the close of that year and the unexpended balance of any moneys withdrawn from the Consolidated Fund shall be repaid to the Consolidated Fund.

24. Development project contracts

Where for the purposes of any development project which has been approved by the National Assembly by resolution or otherwise a contract for the supply of goods or services is entered into on behalf of the United Republic which provides that any payment (other than a payment charged on the Consolidated Fund by virtue of the provision of this or any other Act) is to be made on or after the first day of July next following, the Minister shall as soon as possible after the making of such contract give notice thereof to the National Assembly and every such notice shall specify—

- (i) the names of the contracting parties;
- (ii) the nature of the goods or services to be supplied;
- (iii) the total amount payable by the United Republic in respect of such goods or services and the date or dates on which payment is to be made;
- (iv) the development project to which such contract is referable.

Part IV – Preparation and examination of accounts (ss. 25-36)

(a) – Submission of accounts and reports (s. 25)

25. Annual accounts

- (1) The Accountant-General shall, within a period of six months or such longer period as the National Assembly may by resolution appoint after the end of each financial year, prepare and transmit to the Minister and to the Controller and Auditor-General—
 - (a) a balance sheet showing the assets and liabilities of the Consolidated Fund;
 - (b) a statement of the source and application of funds for the Consolidated Fund showing the revenues, expenditures and financing of the Fund for the year;
 - (c) a summary statement of revenue and expenditure, being a summary of all the statements signed by accounting officers under subsection (2)(a) and (2)(c) of this section;
 - (d) a statement of the amounts outstanding at the end of the year in respect of the Public Debt;
 - (e) a statement of the amounts guaranteed by the Government at the end of the financial year in respect of bank overdrafts, loans, public loan issues and other contingent liabilities;

- (f) a statement of the amount outstanding at the end of the year in respect of loans issued by the Government;
 - (g) a summary statement of Arrears of Revenue for each revenue Head being a summary of the Statements of Arrears of Revenue signed by accounting officers under subsection (2)(d) of this section;
 - (h) a summary statement of commitments outstanding for the supply of goods and services for each Vote at the end of the financial year being a summary of the amount included for such commitments in the statement signed by accounting officers under subsection (2)(b) of this section;
 - (i) a summary statement of stores and other assets for each Vote being a summary of the Statement of assets signed by accounting officers under subsection (2)(e) of this section; and
 - (j) such other statements and in such form as the National Assembly may from time to time require.
- (2) Each accounting officer shall, within a period of four months after the end of each financial year prepare and transmit to the Controller and Auditor-General in respect of the past financial year and in respect of the votes, revenues and moneys for which he is responsible—
- (a) an Appropriation Account signed by the accounting officer showing the services for which the moneys expended were voted, the sums actually expended on each service, and the state of each vote compared with the amount appropriated for that vote by the National Assembly;
 - (b) a statement signed by the accounting officer and in such form as the Accountant-General may direct containing the amount of commitments outstanding for the supply and goods and services at the end of the financial year and such other information as the Minister may require;
 - (c) a statement of revenues received signed by the accounting officer and in such form as the Accounting-General may direct showing the amount contained in the estimates of revenue for each source of revenue and the amount actually collected, and containing an explanation for any variation between the revenues actually collected and the amount estimated;
 - (d) a statement of arrears of revenue signed by the accounting officer showing the amount outstanding at the end of the financial year for each source of revenue and containing such information and in such form as the Accountant-General may direct, a nil return should be submitted if appropriate;

35. Annual and other reports

- (1) On receipt of the accounts prescribed in section 25 of this Act, the Controller and Auditor-General shall cause them to be examined and audited and shall, within a period of nine months or such longer period as the National Assembly may by resolution appoint after the end of the year to which the accounts relate—
- (a) certify, in respect of each account, the result of the examination and audit;
 - (b) prepare a report upon the examination and audit of all such accounts; and
 - (c) submit to the President and the Minister the report, either complete from time to time in parts, as may be convenient, together with copies of the relevant accounts certified.

- (2) If at any time it appears the Controller and Auditor-General desirable that any matter relating to public monies or public property should be drawn to the attention of Parliament without undue delay, he shall prepare a special report relating to such matter and transmit the report to the President, with a copy to the Minister.
- (3) A special report in terms of subsection (2) may be made in relation to any matter incidental to the powers and duties of the Controller and Auditor-General under this Act or any other written law.
- (4) The provisions of Article 143 of the Constitution¹⁷ shall apply to the submission of reports under this section.

36. Reports under this Part to be laid before National Assembly

- (1) Every report made under this Part shall be laid by the Minister before the National Assembly within seven days of the next sitting of the Assembly after he has received it.
- (2) Where the Minister or the appropriate Minister does not lay the report before the National Assembly in accordance with subsection (1), the Controller and Auditor-General shall transmit the report to the Speaker of the National Assembly who shall lay it before the National Assembly.

Part V – Audit of public authorities and other bodies (ss. 37-38)

37. Audit of public authorities, etc.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) and (3), this section applies to—
 - (a) any public authority or body—
 - (i) established by a written law or other instrument which is in receipt of a contribution from, or the operations of which may, under the law or instrument relating thereto, impose or create a liability upon, public funds;
 - (ii) executing a Government project in respect of which a foreign Government or institution or an international organisation provides, any money, goods or services, whether or not it is specifically provided in relevant agreement for the project that the accounts of the public authority or body are subject to audit by the Controller and Auditor-General;
 - (iii) whose accounts are, by or under a written law, required to be audited, or are open to inspection, by the Controller and Auditor-General.
 - (b) any body which has, in any of its financial years, received more than half of its income from public funds; and for the purpose of this paragraph, no money shall be considered as having been received from public funds if it is paid as consideration for the acquisition of property or the supply of goods or services or as remuneration, pensions, allowances or similar benefits for or in respect of a person as the holder of an office.
- (2) In the exercise of his duties under this section, the Controller and Auditor-General shall have the same powers in relation to the moneys, stamps, securities, stores and other property of the bodies referred to in subsection (1) and the officers and employees of such bodies of such as are conferred upon him by section 35 of this Act, as if the moneys, stamps, securities, stores or other property of those bodies were public moneys, stamps, securities, stores or other public property and as if their officers and employees held public office.
- (3) Where the functions of the Controller and Auditor-General in relation to any authority or body falling within paragraph (a) (ii) and (iii) of subsection (1) are by the relevant law or agreement restricted to particular activities of the authority or body, any examination under this section in respect of that authority or body shall be correspondingly restricted.

- (4) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any law in force, the accounts of any body to which this section applies shall be audited by the Controller and Auditor-General.
- (5) The Controller and Auditor-General may authorise any person eligible to be appointed as an auditor of company or any officer to inspect, examine or audit on behalf of the Controller and Auditor-General the books and accounts of any body which the Controller and Auditor-General may be required to audit pursuant to the provisions of this section and such person or officer shall conduct the audit and report thereon to the Controller and Auditor-General in such manner as the Controller and Auditor-General may direct.

38. Reports on audit

- (1) The Controller and Auditor-General shall prepare a report on the audit of the accounts referred to in this section and shall transmit the same to the Minister and to the body concerned, and the body may within twenty-one days transmit to the Minister its observations on such report, in which case it shall transmit a certified copy of such observations to the Controller and Auditor-General.
- (2) The Minister shall, within forty two days of the receipt of a report prepared by the Controller and Auditor-General under subsection (1), cause the same, and any observations made on it by a body under the provisions of subsection (1) and any observations by the Minister, to be laid before the National Assembly.
- (3) The Controller and Auditor-General may raise the charge on any body audited or reported on under this section for the costs of conducting the audits and preparing the reports and such charges shall be payable by the body concerned on demand.

Part VI – Finances and audit of the office of the Controller and Auditor-General and related provisions (ss. 39-42)

39. Funds for the Controller and Auditor-General

- (1) The funds and resources for the Office shall consist of moneys—
 - (a) appropriated by Parliament for the purposes of the Office;
 - (b) earned in connection with the services rendered in accordance with this Act or any other law;
 - (c) accruing to the Office from any other source;
 - (d) which are donations or bequests and the terms of which are acceptable to the Controller and Auditor-General.
- (2) The full amount of moneys from time to time appropriated by the Parliament under paragraph (a) of subsection (1) shall be paid by the Treasury out of the Consolidated Fund into an Audit Revenue Fund, into which all other monies received by, or accruing to the Office shall be paid; and the Fund shall be independent of the control of any person or authority other than the Controller and Auditor-General.

40. Accountability

- (1) The Controller and Auditor-General shall—
 - (a) keep full and proper records of all revenue and expenditure and of all the assets, liabilities and financial transactions of the Office;

- (b) satisfy himself that all reasonable management measures have been taken to ensure that resources which are necessary for achieving the objectives of the Office are as far as possible, obtained, safeguarded and utilized in the most economic, efficient and effective manner;
 - (c) prepare appropriation accounts for the Office in accordance with the provisions of section 25 of this Act.
- (2) The provisions of section 8 of this Act shall, with appropriate modifications apply to the Controller and Auditor-General as the accounting officer of the Office.

41. Estimate of revenue and expenditure

- (1) The Controller and Auditor-General shall, in respect of the first financial year of the Office under this Act and for each subsequent financial year, prepare and submit to the Minister who shall submit to the National Assembly, estimates of the revenue and expenditure of the Office.
- (2) In considering the estimates submitted to it under subsection (1), the National Assembly shall have regard to the advice of the Public Accounts Committee and that of the Minister.

42. Audit of accounts of the Controller and Auditor-General

- (1) The accounts of the Office shall be audited, at least once in every financial year, by a person appointed by the Minister from amongst persons who are registered as auditors (herein referred to as "the auditor") under the Accountants and Auditors (Registration) Act¹⁸, or possessing such other qualifications as the Minister may determine, at such remuneration and on such other terms and conditions as the Minister may determine.
- (2) The remuneration of the auditor appointed under subsection (1) shall be defrayed from the funds of the Office.
- (3) In the performance of his functions as such, the auditor shall have the same powers as the Controller and Auditor-General has in respect of the audit of public authorities and other bodies under section 37 of this Act.
- (4) Upon completion of his examination of the accounts of the Office, the auditor shall certify the accounts of the office and submit his report to the Minister, who shall then lay that report before the National Assembly within three months, or at the next meeting of the Assembly, after he has received the report.

Part VII – Miscellaneous provisions (ss. 43-45)

43. Abandonment of claims, etc., and write-off of public money and stores

- (1) The National Assembly may, by resolution, authorise the Minister to the extent specified in the resolution to abandon and remit any claims by or on behalf of the Government or any service thereof and to write off losses of moneys or stores belonging to the Government or provided for the public service.
- (2) The Minister may by writing under his hand delegate to any officer any powers which he is authorized to exercise by resolution of the National Assembly under this section.

44. Offences

- (1) A person commits an offence against this Act if—
 - (a) without reasonable cause fails to provide by the due date, such information as the Permanent Secretary may reasonably require under section 6(4);
 - (b) without reasonable cause hinders, obstructs the Permanent Secretary or any officer or refuses entry or access to any office for the purposes of inspecting such office in accordance with subsection (5) of section 6 of the Act;
 - (c) contrary to section 15 causes to be opened any bank account for public or official use without the permission of the Accountant-General;
 - (d) contrary to paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (1) of section 32, fails to provide the Controller and Auditor-General or a person authorised by him with all such explanation and information as the Controller and Auditor-General or that person may reasonably require;
 - (e) without reasonable cause fails to provide, or wilfully obstructs access to any item as required by subsection (2) of section 32; or
 - (f) contrary to subsection (1) of section 28, interferes with or exerts undue influence on any officer or employee of the Office or on any person authorised by the Controller and Auditor-General to perform function under this Act.
- (2) Any person convicted of an offence against this Act is liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to both the fine and imprisonment.

45. Repeal of R.L. Cap. 439

- (1) [Repeals the Exchequer and Audit Ordinance.]
- (2) Upon the commencement of this Act, the provisions of the Interpretation of Laws and General Clauses Act shall apply to the repeal of the Exchequer and Audit Ordinance, and all references to that Ordinance in any written law, instrument or document shall, in so far as they relate to the Controller and Auditor-General, his functions or other matter, be construed as references to this Act unless the context requires otherwise.
