A. MATUMA, J

The applicant is seeking extension of time to appeal against the decision of the District Land and Housing Tribunal in Land Application No. 41/2016.

The reason for the delay is failure of the trial tribunal to supply him with the impugned judgment and Decree in time until when the time for appeal expired despite of him having requested the same just a day after its delivery.

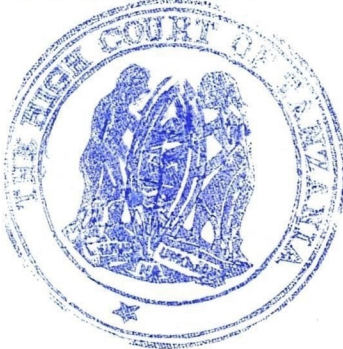

The respondent had no any serious dispute and in fact conceded in the counter affidavit that the applicant had asked for the impugned judgment and Decree just a day after its delivery for appeal purposes.

In the circumstances, I grant this application for having been brought with sufficient cause.

The Applicant is extended 21 days from today within which he should appeal.

No orders as to costs.

It is so ordered.
