APPELLATE JURISDICTION

(DC) MISC. ECONOMIC APPLICATION NO. 20 OF 2020

(Originating from Economic Case No. 9 of 2020 Kibondo District Court).

BARAKA WILIAM @ PUGUMA.....APPLICANT

VERSUS

REPUBLIC.....RESPONDENT

RULING

10th Feb.2021 & 10th Feb.2021

A. MATUMA, J

Since the application is not opposed by the respondent, I grant the same and order the release on bail of the applicant on the following bail conditions;

- i. The Applicant to have two reliable sureties who shall each sign the bond of Tshs 500,000/=
- ii. Each surety to have an introduction letter from any of the local leaders.

iii. The applicant to deposit cash in Court Tshs 1,000,000/= or in alternative a title deed of an immovable property of an equivalent value.

If the title deed is not available then any such other proof of the existence of the property. For clarity, the cash or title deed need not necessarily be of the applicant but of any other person who guarantee the same for the applicant

iv. The applicant should not travel abroad without a prior written permit of the resident Magistrate Incharge of the District Court of Kibondo.

It is so ordered.
