VERSUS

SELEMANI SALUMU CHIDOLIRESPONDENT

Date of last order: 15/07/2021

RULING

MURUKE, J.

Applicant filed present revision on 7th May, 2021. Juma Selemani represented applicant on 15th July 2021. By consent hearing was set to be today 21st October, 2021. Surprisingly applicant is not represented. Respondent told this court that, this is a long time dispute stated way back in 2019 at CMA. Applicant has started paying respondent and on 15th November 2020 they paid this Shs.300,000 out of decretal amount reached by CMA. Respondent requested this court to dismiss revision for want of prosecutions.

Indeed, this court ordered hearing to be today 21/10/2021, in the presence of Mr. Juma Selemani applicant representative. Today, they are absent no any explanation in the court records. They have not adhered to this court order. For smooth administration of justice, court orders has to be respected and complied with. None compliance of court orders not only is a disrespect, but create chaos on entire administration of justice, this can not be left to continue. Whoever, desire this court to hear his case he/she must be ready to prosecute. court of law will not allow sloppiness at the expense of consumers of justice. Failure by the applicant to appear on the date set for hearing by consent is failure to prosecute. Thus, Labour Revision application number 2-of 2021 is dismissed for want of prosecution.
