SAANANE S/O ENOS NYANDA

ORDER/SENTENCE

1st November, 2022

DYANSOBERA, J.:

Having keenly heard and considered both the aggravating and mitigating factors from either side, I note the following. The accused is a first offender and has readily pleaded guilty to the charge offence. The deceased was his beloved wife whose absence makes an onerous burden to the accused to upbringing and take care of six children.

However, as rightly argued by the learned State Attorney, the deceased brutally met the death while claiming her rights and the accused exhibited selfishness and egoism.

For those reasons, the accused is sentenced to four (4) years term of imprisonment.
