MISC. CRIMINAL APPLICATION NO.55 OF 2022

(Originating from the District Court of Ruangwa in Criminal Case No.119 of 2020)

JUMA ABDALLAH MANGUKU.....APPLICANT

THE REPUBLIC.....RESPONDENT

LALTAIKA, J.

The applicant, JUMA ABDALLAH MANGUKU, is seeking extension of time within which to file a Petition of Appeal out of time. The applicant is moving this court under section 361(2) of the Criminal Procedure Act [Cap. 20 R.E. 2002] now the REVISED EDITION 2022. This application is supported by an affidavit affirmed by the applicant on 28/9/2022. It is noteworthy that this application has not been resisted by a counter affidavit of the respondent.

During the hearing, the applicant appeared in person, unrepresented while Mr. Enosh Kigoryo, learned State Attorney, appeared for the respondent. At the outset the applicant submitted that his application be adopted and form part of his submission.

In response, Mr. Kigoryo had no objection to the applicant's application. He submitted that the delay is caused by difficulties of the applicant as a prisoner whose freedom is curtailed. The learned State Attorney contended that that is a reasonable ground and also for the interest of justice application be granted.

Having gone through the application by the applicant and submission of both parties, I am inclined to decide on the merit or otherwise of the application. In the instant application, the main reasons for the delay are featured under paragraphs 6, 7 and 8 of the affirmed affidavit as well as the respondent's oral submission are that One, inability of the Prison Authority to liaise and file the already prepared Petition of Appeal at the registry of this court on time. Two, the transfer of the applicant from Ruangwa Prison to Lilungu Central Prison in Mtwara. Three, the curtailment of the applicant's right to liberty which made him unable to follow up his case. Four, limited legal assistance in the Prison Authorities.

In view of the above reasons, it is apparent that the delay was caused by factors beyond the ability of the applicant to control and cannot be blamed on him. The next issue I am called upon to resolve is whether or not the reasons advanced by the applicant amount to good cause. Our law does not define what amount to good/sufficient cause. However, in the case of Regional Manager, TANROADS Kagera v. Ruaha Concrete Company Ltd, Civil Application No.96 of 2007 (unreported) it was held:-

"Sufficient reasons cannot be laid down by any hard and fast rule. This must be determined in reference to all the circumstances of each particular case. This means the applicant must place before the court material which will move the court to exercise its judicial discretion in order to extend the time."

The same was stated by the Court of Appeal in the case of Tanga Cement Co. Ltd. vs Jummanne D. Masangwa and Another, TAG Civil Application No.6 of 2001 (unreported). As to the matter at hand, I can safely say that the applicant has advanced good cause for his delay to lodge his Petition of Appeal out of time.

Indeed the chain of events explained in the applicant's affidavit and also in oral submission shows that in spite of inability to follow up on his case due to the circumstances beyond his control as a prisoner, he has not given up.

I am convinced that the applicant has not only advanced good cause but also exhibited great diligence in pursuing his appeal. He has not displayed any apathy, negligence, or sloppiness in the prosecution he intends to take as was emphasized in the case of Lyamuya Construction Co. Ltd. vs. Board of Registered Trustees of Young Women Christian Association of Tanzania, Civil Application No 2 of 2020 [2011] TZCA4.

For the foregoing reasons, I find and hold that the applicant has advanced sufficient reasons for the delay to warrant this court to exercise its discretion to grant the enlargement sought.

Therefore, the applicant is hereby given thirty (30) days to lodge his Petition of Appeal effective from the date of this ruling.

It is so ordered.
