RULING

MKEHA, J.

In this application the applicant is moving the court to investigate the matter in respect of persons who are resisting or obstructing the applicant from entering and obtaining possession of his house with certificate of Title No. 130520/8 located at Usambara/Eckenford Street-Tanga City. The applicant is also moving the court for issuance of an order for eviction of the 2nd to 10th Respondents who are resisting in the house bought by the applicant.

The application is made under Order XXI Rule 95 (1) and (2) of the Civil Procedure Code. The application is supported with an affidavit affirmed by the applicant, Mr. Mohamed Salim Said.

Despite service of the application to the respondents, neither of them filed a counter affidavit. No single appearance was made by any of the applicants to contest the same.

In terms of the affidavit supporting the application, the applicant is the purchaser of a house with certificate of Title No. 130520/8 located at Usambara/ Eckenford Street within Tanga City through an auction conducted by the 1st Respondent, MABUNDA AUCTION MART on 05th July 2010. A copy of certificate of sale is attached to the affidavit as Annexure CC-1. Even after the purchaser/applicant had obtained a certificate of sale and a certificate of Title in respect of the purchased house, the 2nd to 10th respondents resisted vacating the said premises to give vacant possession to the purchaser. See: Paragraph 1, 2, 4, and 5 of the affidavit supporting the application. The facts hereinabove have not been controverted by any of the respondents.

Rule 95(1) of Order XXI of the Civil Procedure Code provides that, where the holder of a decree for the possession of immovable property or the purchaser of any such property sold in execution of a decree is resisted or obstructed by any person in obtaining possession of the property, he may make an application to the court complaining of such resistance or obstruction. By filing the present application, no doubt the applicant has lodged the complaint envisaged under Order XXI Rule 95 (1) and (2) of the Civil Procedure Code. It is not disputed that, via Commercial case No. 20 of 2011, the applicant, by a decision of this court became the holder of a decree for the possession of immovable property, the disputed property.

Failure of the 2nd to 10th Respondents to appear before this court in view of contesting the application implies something. The said failure is a clear indication that, their resistance or obstruction was occasioned without any justifiable cause on part of the 2nd to 10th Respondents. It is for the foregoing reasoning I direct that the applicant be put into possession of the property. The 2nd to 10th Respondents be immediately evicted from the suit property. No order is made as to costs. It is so ordered.

DATED at DAR ES SALAAM this 25th day of October, 2022
