RULING

Date of last Order: 18/05/2020

Date of Ruling: 14/07/2020

Z.G.Muruke, J.

This is fairly old matter, having started in 2013 at the Commission for Mediation and Arbitration (CMA). Applicant filed present revision on 26th January, 2019. Since filing applicant counsel appeared on 29th April, 2019, 18th June, 2019 and 18th September, 2019. Since, then no appearance has ever been made. From the records, it seems applicant has lost interest to prosecute case filed, 17 months ago. None appearance not duly a sign of disrespect to the court but create chaos on entire administration of justice. Court orders has to be respected and complied with. Otherwise, cases will be delayed at the expense of parties to the suit and consumer of justice as a whole. I understand that right to be heard is so fundamental. However, those rights have to go hand in hand with obligations of parties to the suit. Without much ado, Revision application number 122/2019 is dismissed for want of prosecutions.
