Z.G.Muruke, J.

Applicant filed present application on 15th November, 2019. Since filing his counsel appeared only once on 10th December, 2019. Since then, no appearance has been made despite several court orders. To the contrary, respondent counsel Innocent Tairo has been appearing most of the time once case is called for hearing. Court orders has to be complied with. None compliance of the same, not only is disrespect, but create chaos on entire administration of justice. This should not be left to happened. As correctly submitted by respondent counsel, it seems applicant has lost interest to prosecute his case filed eleven months ago. Accordingly Miscellaneous application number 682/2019 is dismissed for want of prosecutions.
