An Act to provide for the control of war graves.

1. Short title

This Act may be cited as the War Graves Act.

2. Interpretation

In this Act unless the context otherwise requires—

"the Commission" means the Commonwealth War Graves Commission¹, a body corporate constituted by the Royal Charter of the 21st May, 1917, and so entitled by virtue of a Supplemental Royal Charter of the 28th March, 1960;

"war grave" means a grave which has been accepted by the Commission as a grave within the purposes of the said Charter and of a Supplemental Charter of August 10th, 1921.

3. Power to vest control of war graves and cemeteries in Commission

The President may from time to time, by notice published in the Gazette, vest in the Commission—

- (a) the control of all or any war graves in Tanzania or in any area of Tanzania, whether on public or private land;
- (b) the control of any piece of public land containing war graves, in this Act referred to as a war grave cemetery; and
- (c) the control of any piece of land for the erection by the Commission of a War Memorial elsewhere than in a war grave cemetery.

4. Powers of Commission

The Commission shall have all powers necessary or convenient for the fulfilment of their purposes and in particular for maintaining any war grave or war grave cemetery under their control in proper order and for beautifying the grave or cemetery, and, in particular, power to enclose the grave or cemetery and to erect and maintain thereon or therein gravestones, tablets, or monuments of any description.

Note: Any reference to the Imperial War Graves Commission in any notice issued, power conferred or approval given under the War Graves Act shall be deemed to be a reference to the Commonwealth War Graves Commission Ordinance No. 40 of 1960 s. 3.

5. Protection of private rights

- (1) Where a war grave is situated on private land, the Commission shall before entering thereon give at least twenty-four hours notice to the occupier, if any, and shall, as far as possible, consult at his convenience, and shall compensate him for any actual damage caused to him by the exercise of their powers.
- (2) In the event of dispute the amount of such compensation shall be fixed by the President whose decision shall be final.
- (3) Nothing in this Act shall affect the right of the owner of any grave in a war grave cemetery, not being a war grave, to have access to and maintain such grave, or confer on the Commission any right to interfere with any such grave or gravestone, tablet or monument thereon.

6. Exclusive right of burial

- (1) The Commission shall have the exclusive right of burial in all war graves under their control.
- (2) The President may confer on the Commission the exclusive right of burial in any vacant space in a war grave cemetery under their control.

Provided that—

- (a) the body of a Hindu shall, instead of being re-interred, be cremated in the manner customary among Hindus; and
- (b) the Commission shall, before removing a body, endeavour to obtain the consent of the widow, if any, of the deceased, or, if there is no widow, of one of his next-of-kin, and shall not remove the body if they are of opinion that the removal will be against the wishes of the widow, or, if there is no widow, of the next-of-kin.

8. Offences in relation to war graves

- (1) No person shall wilfully destroy, injure, defile, disfigure or deface any building, wall, fence, gate, tree, plant, monument, tablet, inscription or gravestone belonging to or under the control of the Commission.
